

PLA

Teaching Generations Y and Z: pedagogical challenges in teaching and learning environments in higher education

Paris, 12-13 July

Explore impact of Generations Y and Z on systems, institutions and pedagogy.

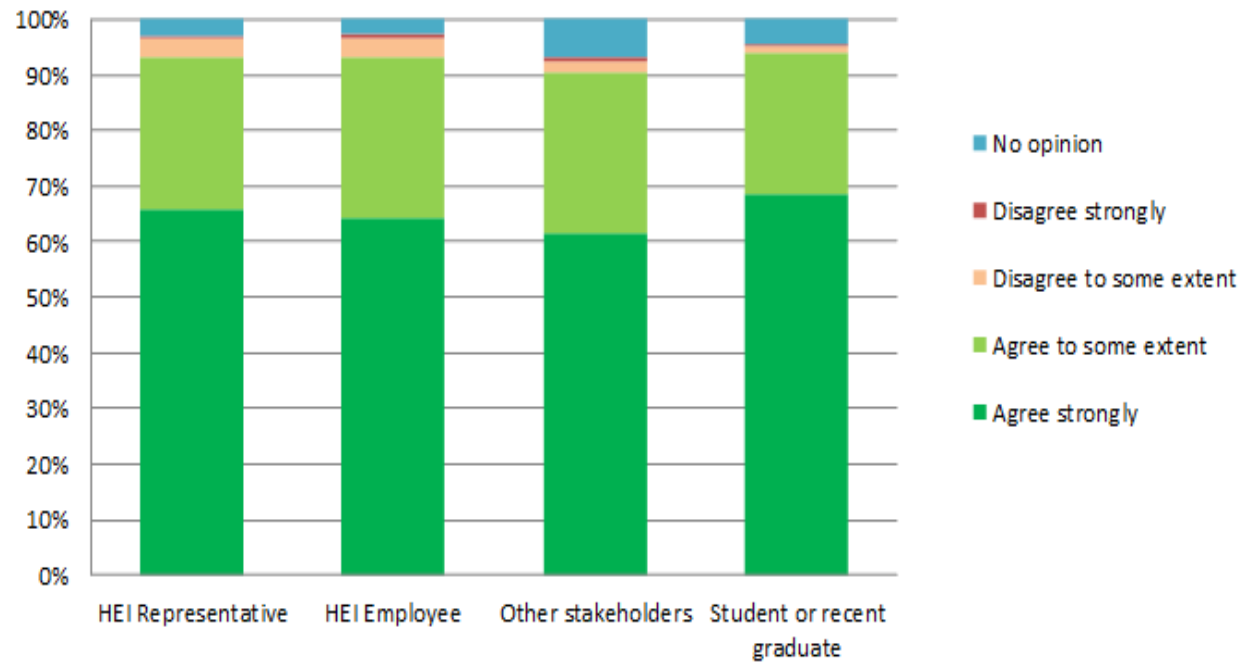

Pedagogical training of teachers

Learning needs of students

The way teaching is funded rewards quality

Improve the training available to teaching staff in higher education

Policies and/or research to address teaching and learning needs.

Incentives, recognition and certification of pedagogical training

Development of innovative pedagogy in innovative learning spaces

Areas for further work at EU level

Allow innovation and co-creation in curricula

Open learning and innovation ecosystems

Evidence-based policy frameworks

Incentives and support to enhance teaching and learning

Dialogue and knowledge sharing

Develop pedagogical skills

Reward high-quality innovative teaching

National HR planning to align staff and student needs

Improve evidence base

More peer learning and knowledge sharing

Citizenship and ethics

Renewed EU Agenda for higher education

Erasmus+ funding

More peer learning